Gilbert and Sullivan at Warren House: August 11, 2011

We are delighted to welcome Cameo Opera to Warren House on Thursday August 11th, when they will perform a programme that should delight Gilbert and Sullivan fans as well as those who enjoy the entertaining evenings of music and laughter that Cameo Opera are so renowned for.

Gilbert And Sullivan

Cameo Opera will take guests on a musical journey with some of the best loved and larger than life characters that appear in costumed excerpts from The Pirates of Penzance, HMS Pinafore, The Gondoliers, The Mikado, Ruddigore, Yeomen of the Guard, Patience, Iolanthe, Princess Ida and many other favourite Gilbert & Sullivan pieces.

Gilbert and Sullivan wrote 14 light operas between 1871 and 1896. Their operas have enjoyed international success and are much loved by young and old alike.

As Matthew Craven, Creative Director said, "It is fitting that Warren House comes alive with Gilbert and Sullivan's music. Indeed, the first staged performance of Princess Ida coincided with the same year that Warren House was built - 1884. Princess Ida will feature in the evening's programme."

The evening's entertainment will be performed by Rebecca Mitchell, Soprano; Judith Buckle, Mezzo; Michael Muckleston, Tenor and Matthew Craven, Baritone; accompanied by Peter Bailey on the piano.

Cameo Opera

Cameo Opera was formed in 1990 and since then, the group has gained an enviable reputation for their intimate and innovative presentations of opera, operetta and musical theatre. Performed by first class singers and enhanced by entertaining yet informative introductions, they are now one of the most prominent and sought after entertainment groups in the UK.

Cameo Opera's programmes are particularly suitable for festivals, corporate and fund-raising events, weddings, anniversaries and other celebrations. Recent engagements include a prize giving ceremony at London's Guildhall, a silver anniversary banquet at Lincoln's Inn, charity events at Trinity House, a performance of 'Trial by Jury' at the Hurlingham Club, centenary celebrations at Leeds Castle and a Christmas concert in the Queen's House at the National Maritime Museum. They also produce full scale productions such as the recent The Barber of Seville and Don Giovanni for the Canterbury

Festival and a Gilbert and Sullivan Gala for the Bridlington & Margate Festivals.

Achieve Serious Fitness with FIT8: September 2011

For many of us, the traditional gym just doesn't work. Overcrowded, unstructured and pretty much unsupervised, we are doomed to fail from our very first visit.

Many join a gym full of enthusiasm, only to make a rare visit after the first few weeks. Sometimes, it is down to lifestyle, lack of support or motivation, or pains and aches which never seem to heal.

The FIT8 Approach

The FIT8 is different. And most importantly, it really works. Founded by Laurence and Louise Whelan, it has taken many people by surprise. Bringing together scientific knowledge, passionate belief, fun and a dynamic supervision, it has proven to be a uniquely successful package.

The system is methodical and progressive. At the beginning, each client is individually assessed and placed in one of three key stages, depending on the level of fitness. This approach means maintaining a healthy lifestyle becomes almost second nature. As clients progress through the FIT8 levels, their programme is adapted to suit.

FIT8's Appliance of Science

Biomechanics show how a malfunctioning body area can incorrectly load another, creating further problems. FIT8's biomechanical assessment identifies the problem areas, and traces them back to their root cause. This is then incorporated in the personalised fitness programme.

Clients train between two and four times a week according to their individual plans. Sessions are completely supervised, with a maximum of three clients to a trainer and never more than eight clients in the group. As results are measured and milestones passed, many progress further than they ever thought possible.

Experience the FIT8 difference

FIT8 have built a strong following within Wimbledon and Weybridge. From September 2011, you will be able to train with FIT8 at Warren House. As a Hammersley Member, you are invited to a free trial session to really experience FIT8. To speak to a FIT8 trainer, call on 07971 977 569 or email info@fit8.co.uk. www.fit8.co.uk
