A Few Words ...

Welcome to the summer edition of our newsletter.

Spring has rolled into summer with a strong momentum which has been gathering speed and intensity since the start of the year. This is all very good news for us and for the many businesses we work with. In fact, it has been truly an inspirational time as we see efforts and initiatives materialise into solid results.

On a lighter note, our gardens have survived the heat and our clients and guests are certainly enjoying our terraces for break out sessions, lunches and Pimms in the afternoon. And I do believe that ice cream is also on the menu for our delegates. All in all, a sizzling summer with hot deals prepared by our new sales manager, Gary Mehmet. We are lucky to have Gary join us and I am sure that if you haven't yet met him, you will meet him before long. Gary will be hosting open day events for all our clients, starting in September. He has started contacting all of you to meet you and get to know your business better. Gary will also be distributing our Day Delegate Availability Tool, which will be updated monthly to help you plan your events.

*Carolyn Henderson,

It is this inspired activity, the quality in our customer care, the professionalism and attention to detail that continue to drive our focus.

I wish you all a lovely summer and look forward to seeing you soon at Warren House.

Carolyn Henderson,
General Manager.

Warren House hosts the EAGB Summer Networking Event

Warren House is proud to host an informal summer networking event for the Executives Association of Great Britain (EAGB).

Taking place on August 12th, the meeting will feature the highly acclaimed Mikado Experience. This is a unique guided networking session led by Grenville Burn, himself a past Chairman of the EAGB. This is followed by a drinks reception and buffet lunch. For the rest of the afternoon, there are gardens, games, a pool and a gym to keep guests busy. The aim of this special day is to think, be inspired, meet people and above all, to relax.

Transportation has been arranged and a shuttle bus will run from New Malden station from 10.00am to 11.00am, in time for the Mikado Experience, returning between 15.15 and 16.00.

This summer networking event is open to both members and non-members alike, and tickets are available at £50 per person.

Members, guests and friends are invited to attend and take advantage of the opportunity to host their own meeting at Warren House. As a special offer, Warren House is offering a special day delegate of £40 per person for meetings taking place before or after the EAGB event.

And if any attendees are tempted to say overnight, either before or after the event, Warren House is offering an exclusive rate of £75 B&B.

Members and Activities

The EAGB has been running for over seventy years and has established itself as one of the foremost business networking organisations in the UK for businesses of all sizes.

The EAGB is also a member of the International Executives Association (IEA), giving members access to all the information and reach of the IEA.

The organisation meets monthly in London and all members share experiences to live up to their motto—“Creating Business”.

Guest Speaker: Mike Nevin

Mike Nevin is an accomplished and much sought after international presenter and has delivered both internal and external keynote presentations, workshops and speeches at more than 70 events in the last three years alone!

Attendees regularly score Mike's presentations at greater than 4.5/5.00 as a reflection of his deep knowledge, passion, anecdotal insights and engaging style.

Mike 'walks the talk' when it comes to LinkedIn having built an international consulting business using LinkedIn alone as the only form of CRM, marketing, advertising and client engagement.

He regularly coaches both people and organisations on how to develop more business more easily using this breakthrough social networking tool.

To date, people who have followed Mike's structured approach have:

- Developed more business quickly
- Connected with more people, more effectively
- Found new jobs
- Established communities of interest
- Established themselves as an expert in their chosen fields
- Reconnected with lost contacts/friends.

Mike is currently completing his first book: 'A handbook of Strategic Alliance Management'. He has also published more than 85 articles.

Supporting our Business Community

Warren House is an active member of the EAGB and a number of other networks and associations. As well as attending and participating in meetings and events, Warren House regularly hosts breakfast and evening networking meetings. As Carolyn Henderson, General Manager said, “We firmly believe in supporting our clients and partners. We have facilitated many introductions and we are delighted to support our local business community in this manner.”

Booking for the August event can be made either through the website www.eagb.co.uk or by email, addressed to Andrea Matyszczyk, Director of Operations, at andrea@eagb.co.uk.

“ At Warren House, we firmly believe in supporting our clients and partners through networking and facilitating introductions . We participate in a number of networks and we are proud of our membership with the EAGB.”
Carolyn Henderson,
General Manager.

A Christmas Special, Only At Warren House

We are still in summer, yet it seems like that time of year is never too far away.

We have already received calls from PAs eager to secure dates for their Christmas parties before the summer is over. So whilst you still have the chance to book your requested date, we urge you to get in touch as soon as possible.

To whet your appetite, Head Chef Paul Bellingham has already prepared his mouth-watering Christmas menus. Chef is always ready to cater for any dietary requirements — as our many delighted guests can testify.

We are also taking reservations for joint Christmas parties, where smaller groups can book one or two tables, and still enjoy all the fun of the festivities on a large scale.

On the other hand, if you are catering for 60 guests or more, why not consider exclusive hire of Warren House and make it an overnight stay?

Our attention at all times is to create memories at this time of celebration. We take the hassle out of all the organisation. Your party will be indulged as they enjoy our sumptuous Christmas experience and then relax with an afternoon drink in front of the fire or gather in the billiards room.

A Perfect Venue For Your Business Conversations

Although the pressure is always on for tighter budgets and speedier results, work must still be inspired, creative and of top quality. As many of you delight in telling us, there is no doubt that you are comfortable making Warren House your own, using it to gel together as a team, find inspiration and be creative.

Inspiration and Creativity, Guaranteed.

We believe it is perfect for your corporate days, team meetings or events. Warren House enables those business conversations to happen... during meetings, over dinner, in the gardens... in fact, anywhere you like. It is paramount that we exceed expectations, allowing you to achieve your goals while away from your office environment. It is just as important for us that you believe it was truly value for money.

Open Days

Starting in September, we are organising a series of open days, where we would like you to feel free to drop in for coffee, for lunch, for tea or simply for drinks and a chat. Warren House is yours to enjoy for the day, whether you want to introduce a colleague to the House, or spend some time in the gardens, in the lounge or by the pool. Invitations will be sent in due course.

We are also launching our handy Day Delegate Availability Tool (below) which will be updated monthly. This will no doubt make it easier to plan, manage your budgets and find choice dates for your events.

For further information on our meeting and corporate packages, please contact Gary Mehmet on 020 8974 7115 or email gary@warrenhouse.com.
