LUXURY AND SERVICE WITHOUT COMPROMISE

DETAIL IS everything at Warren House. If you are hosting a memorable family occasion, you need excellence across the board, total support, understanding and of course special ideas to add those personal touches to your day. Nowhere else will you discover a team that is so truly on the same wave length in terms of delivering beyond your expectations and wanting to play a part in creating your special memories.

IMAGINATION, INSPIRATION AND INNOVATION

WE LOVE working with clients to create something special. We adore seeing the excitement of an initial visit to the House and watching as a love affair begins. Moments of delight then flow along the journey. The co-ordination of the day, the discussions over colours and themes, the focus on food and fine wine, music and dancing and the delightful excitement building as we move towards the event date. The occasion, when it arrives, then exceeds even the highest expectations – those little extra touches that we arrange which just seem to be visible throughout, and the smiling faces of both guests and staff. How very, very special this venue is and yes, we know what creates a memory!
